Exceptional Character. Exceptional Assets.

Experienced Advisors Since 1934, the Karcher Agency has served the insurance needs of thousands of individuals, families and businesses—from one generation to the next. As independent agents, we have the expertise and resources to educate, and not overwhelm, our clients with valuable information about products that can serve their individual needs.

Friendly, Personalized Service We've learned from years of experience that each person or business we serve is unique—no two are alike. That's why we take the time to consult with each one individually, to gain as much information about your needs, to provide as many affordable options as possible and to help you make a selection that fits your personal financial strategy.

Building on Success Our success has been built on the confidence clients have placed in us, year after year, to help take care of their insurance and financial needs. We welcome your call at any time—whatever your questions may be. We want to serve as a valuable resource to help you make informed decisions.

Our Commitment to the Community With more than 75 years in business, the Karcher Agency has become a well respected “institution” in Dearborn and in surrounding southeast Michigan communities. Our friendly, open door policy and ongoing commitment to community service have enabled us to spread goodwill and to better understand your needs.

Our Legacy Continues . . .

In 1934, George Karcher established the Karcher Agency in Dearborn during the Great Depression. In the 1950s, sons Don and Roy joined the family business, taking an active role in the community and insurance industry. Now under the able leadership of a third generation, the Karcher Agency continues to grow and prosper—assisting clients with their insurance and financial service needs.
